Community Coordinated Child Care of Union County, a nonprofit resource and referral agency, believe all families deserve quality, affordable child care. CCCC empowers parents to be knowledgeable consumers, providing child care referrals, child care subsidies and linking parents and providers to services essential to family stability. The agency also supports Centers and Home based child care providers through educational programs, technical assistance, business management and resource development.

Yes! I would like to help CCCC improve early childhood services in Union County.
